

News Release for WEA Friends and Partners

Announcement – Welland Enterprise – Emma Chapman- Chief Executive

It is with very mixed feelings that I advise you that I have recently accepted the offer of a new role with another Enterprise Agency. In early May I will become Head of Enterprise Services at NWES, Britain's largest Enterprise Agency, based in Norwich. NWES was founded in 1982 and has since expanded to deliver enterprise support services across Norfolk, Suffolk, Cambridgeshire and Essex.

You will understand that I mean what I say when I refer to "mixed feelings". I have thoroughly enjoyed my time at Welland Enterprise and I am proud of what has been achieved, thanks to the support of a great team and our many friends and partners. However, my new role offers me a new and exciting challenge and represents a significant personal development opportunity.

I am sure that Welland Enterprise will continue to go from strength to strength, with the continued support of our friends and partners.

Thank you. It has been a pleasure to work with you.

Kind regards

Emma
